Oral Examination Rubric

Not posted yet

This page is not posted yet.

Each oral examination is a 15-minute individual session in my office. You will work a somewhat open-ended problem that connects data to a design or risk decision, writing on scratch paper while I sit beside you, and then answer follow-up questions about the choices you made.